News & Views from Woodrun

2020-1

There are five candidates for this year's election and three positions are to be filled. The five candidates are: Wayne Ayers, Kevin Ferge, Cristina Hays, Drake Lewis, and Brenda Wheeler. Their bio's will be included with the ballot. The positions up for election are Scott Bagwell, Judy Dennie and Gary Barrowclough who are retiring from the board. Their service to Woodrun will be missed.

Along with your ballot will be the 2020 dues invoice. There has not been any dues increase so if you haven't sold or purchased property it will be the same as last years.

Please Do Not put your dues payment in the ballot envelope! The ballot and dues have to be returned under separate cover. Dues are due by April 1 and the ballot is due by the annual meeting (April 11). Any questions please call the office.

Judy and Barbara came up with a new tradition for Woodrun; the annual New Years Party. It was held at the club house with a pot luck dinner. There were about 30 people there to welcome in the new decade.

Go Team!

The team of Barbara & Judy have come up with a new tradition for Woodrun; The Super Bowl Party! This was our first year and it turned out great. There were three TV's set up so everyone had a good viewing spot. Sofa's were moved in from the meeting room so all had a comfortable place to sit. As with most pot luck dinners there was food to spare so the attendees went home in a food stupor. But most important all can claim that Joe Montana's team won.
